Background

Corie is a dynamic and lively display typeface inspired by young creators. It was designed to convey a sense of freedom and vibrancy in a modern neo-grotesque sans-serif font, achieving a modern and casual look.

The typeface combines sharp stroke endings with circular geometric details, giving it a unique personality suitable for displays, branding, headlines, and posters. It was created by Sanghyun Park, based on research on grotesque font proportions and sketches.

Corie includes ligature sets and OpenType features, making it suitable for various typographic projects. It offers a unified family of seven weights: Thin, Light, Regular, Medium, Bold, Heavy, and Black and variable font.

The font also provides multiple stylistic sets, allowing users to add personality to simple glyph shapes.

"Formes en Mouvement"

15 Mars - 30 Avril

Musée d'Art Contemporain, Paris, France

Une exploration visuelle des formes dynamiques et des contrastes dans le design contemporain.

Cette exposition met en lumière l'interaction entre mouvement et structure, jouant avec la perception du spectateur à travers des compositions audacieuses et innovantes. À travers une sélection d'œuvres variées – installations immersives, typographies expérimentales, sculptures et supports numériques – les artistes interrogent la frontière entre rigidité et fluidité, équilibre et rupture.

He was a notable influence on Ludwig van Beethoven and Frédéric Chopin. Clementi also produced and promoted his own brand of pianos and was a notable music publisher.
